MEMPHIS, Tenn., December 3.—Secretary M. N. Macfarlan of the New Memphis Jockey Club today announced ten stakes to close January 3, 1903, eight of which will be decided at the coming spring meeting of 1904. The club has increased the value of the following stakes: The Montgomery Handicap, from $2,000 added to $2,500 added, and, in addition, the club will present the winner with a valuable silver cup; The Cotton Steeplechase Handicap, from $1,000 added to $1,500 added; The Memphis Stakes, two-year-olds, from $1,600 added to $2,000 added. At the next spring meeting no purse will be offered to which less than $400 will be added by the club and no handicap with less than $600 added. Following is a complete list of stakes offered that close January 3, 1903: Five are for two-year-olds in 1903; The Tennessee Derby, 1904; Tennessee Oaks, 1904; The Gaston Hotel Stakes, 1903; The Ardelle Stakes, fillies; The Memphis Stakes; The Hotel Gayoso Stakes, $1,000 added, one mile. Four stakes for three-year-olds and upward, The Montgomery Handicap, $2,500 added and silver cup, one and one-sixteenth miles, estimated value independent of cup, $4,500; The Peabody Hotel Handicap, $1,000 added, nine furlongs, estimated value, $2,500; The Tennessee Brewing Company (selling) Stakes, $1,000 added, seven furlongs, estimated value, $2,500; The Cotton Steeplechase Handicap, $1,500 added, about two miles, estimated value, $2,000.

The Tennessee Derby and Oaks for 1903 that closed last January will be decided at the coming meeting. Declarations in these two stakes must be made on or before January 2, 1903.

The stakes of the California Jockey Club which closed October 27 received entries as follows:

The Opening Handicap, $1,500 added; 1 mile. 56.

The Waterhouse Cup, $2,500 added; 2 1-4 miles. 36.

The Gebhardt Handicap, 2-year-olds, $1,750 added; futurity course. 76.

These figures are greatly in excess of those of last year and many good class performers are nominated in the various stakes that so far have not started, but will presently add to the character of the 'Frisco racing. Prominent among the entries appear the names of Americano, Argregor, Articulate, Artvis, Autolight, Arabo, Asterita, Bassenzo, Bon Mot, Beau Ormonde, Bedeck, Ben MacDhui, Bessie McCarthy, Bronze Wing, Cameron, Constellator, Corrigan, Cunard, Cruzados, Doublet, Durazzo, Duelist, Daisy Green, Deutschland, Eonic, Ethylene, Erema, Evander, Fitzbrillar, Felix Bard, Figardon, Floronso, Flush of Gold, Forte, Frangible, Frank Woods, Fort Wayne, Gravina, Glendenning, Greyfeld, Gibraltar, Gold Finder, Golden Light, Hagerdon, Headwater, Homestead, Hermencia, Honiton, Horton, Huachuca, Irene Lindsey, Illowaho, Ishtar, Joe Frey, Joe Ripley, Jarretiere d'Or, Kenilworth, King Pepper, Lode Star, Lord Badge, Lapidus, Maggie Davis, Maggie Felix, Marque, Mary McCafferty, Muresca, Morinel, Nones, Nilgar, Nigrette, Old England, Organdie, Oakingtan, Orfeo, Peaceful, Pat Morrissey, Position, Polonius, Princess Titania, Redwald, Rollick, Rey Dare, Sam Fullen, Searcher, Sharp Bird, Siddons, Sister Jeanie, Sly, Sombrero, St. Sever, Stuyve, Sylvia Talbot, Saul of Tarsus, Snark, Step Around, The Fretter, The Pride, Timemaker, Tower of Candles, Vesuvian, Varro, Vonzollern, Velma Clark, Vincitor, Water Cure, Warte Nicht, Wyoming, Wolhurst, Yellow Tail and others credited with the winners' brackets on many tracks. Later along, when the better horses that have not started as yet are ready for action, it is evident the patrons of Ingleside and Oakland are destined to enjoy highly interesting and sensational racing.

NEW ORLEANS RACING.

In speaking of the first few days of racing at New Orleans the Picayune of December 1 has this to say:

"Although only three of the hundred days of the winter meeting at the Fair Grounds have been run, the public has already learned one thing, and that is that the game this winter will be easier to beat than ever. This conclusion is arrived at from the fact that up to date nine of the eighteen choices have been returned winners. This, too, in spite of the fact that there are more horses here this winter than ever before. The class of horses is much better than in previous seasons and are more liable to run to form. Shrewd players have found, however, that it is not wise to buck up against a certain coterie who are plunging with money not all their own on horses of their own selection. At a meeting of this kind these plunges are dangerous. Experience has taught that where combinations of any kind—either betting or laying—are formed, they become too powerful for the good of the turf, and in many instances the nastiest kind of turf scandals have been traced to their doors.

"This idea of making a business of racing should be discouraged. It does the turf no good. Certainly it robs it of all savor of sport. Then again, the temptation to try and cinch things is too great. For instance, take a race that figures to be a two-horse affair; that is, one that, bar accident, looks to lay between two horses. What's to prevent these people from going to one of the owners and agreeing to place $500, or even $1,000, on his horse? That kind of a wager looks mighty big to an owner who is compelled to race in the winter months in order to keep the wolf from the door. Naturally he is anxious to win, and what's to prevent him from going to the owner of the other horse, which looks like the contender, and declaring him in with his part of the winnings? Such things have been done, and will continue to be done as long as these sure thing men are around. Some of the bolder of these promoters have been known to go to owners and give them a ticket on a horse other than their own in which they have had a starter. This, however, is a dangerous practice, and the shrewder allow the owners to do the business among themselves. Of course, the writer does not mean to infer that all owners would stoop to resort to such practices, but at a meeting such as this, where so many different interests are concentrated, there is bound to be some among their number who would scuttle a ship if they got the chance.

"Every fair-minded man having the true interests of the sport at heart would like to see these concerns abolished. There is nothing like taking the bull by the horns instead of waiting for him to gore you to death. If these promoters were discouraged it would mean a big benefit to racing, and the prevention of a lot of scandal which is sure to come.

"Another thing that is menacing the racing game, and one that will give it a black eye, is these get-rich-quick concerns. They are bound to go to the wall, and if given enough rope their promoters are sure to hang themselves. When the crash comes the howlers will lay the blame at the door of the race track proprietors. Naturally they will be soured against racing and they will stop at nothing to put in a knock against the game. The result of their howls may possibly lead to adverse legislation in some states, and for their own protection, if not for the good of the turf, the members of the Western Jockey Club should endeavor to find some means of driving these men out of business."

Went to post at 2:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Tom Maybin was on the extreme outside in the comparatively good going all the way. Tancred's position at the post next to the inside rail proved a big handicap and Tom Maybin had a winning lead before Tancred got out of the deep going. The latter finished strongly through the last furlong and was gaining on the winner. Mathilde ran well and finished strongly. Mount Hope tired and quit in the stretch ran and was eased up when beaten. Lord Touchwood would not extend himself.

Peter Duryea was cut off at the start, but wore Nabocklish down in the last quarter, caught the latter tiring at the end and won going away. Hi Kollar quit badly in the stretch.

T. K. LYNCH.

Went to post at 4:02. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Scorpio displayed the most speed and Gannon picked his going and kept him on the path all the way. He was tiring at the end and just managed to last long enough to stall off Ordnung. O'Connor attempted to come through on the outside with Ordnung in the last sixteenth, but could not get through, then went around the leader and allowed Ordnung to swerve over into the heavy going when he pulled his whip. This cost Ordnung the race. Optional was easily the best of the others. Lord Pepper was tiring in the last furlong. Honolulu was in the heavy going all the way.

Scratched—36506^{2}W. J. Deboe, 110; 36522 Hanover Queen, 99.

Scorpio, show, 7 to 5. Optional, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Oddfellow—Jewel H. (trained by W. Creighton).

Went to post at 2:07. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Breton was lucky, and under skillful piloting and a vigorous finish outstayed Amasa. The latter had set a fast pace, but was tiring at the end. Stirling Towers displayed a good order of speed and held on well. Lone Fisherman requires a strong ride. Away flatfooted and repeatedly interfered with in the first half, he closed up fast when too late and favors a longer race. Jim Brownell is very moderate. Lexington Pirate was short and can beat this kind when good.

Winner—Ch. f, by Juvenal—Sister Geneva (trained by J. Coffey).

Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second driving. Evea G. displayed amazing speed and showed phenomenal improvement and can beat good ones on today's showing. Hesper secured a lucky start, had clear sailing, finished strongly and is steadily improving. Matin Bell was interfered with at the start and tired right at the end after a hard early effort to overtake the winner. Tizona broke flatfooted and worked a rough passage to the stretch, where he was slowly gaining. Halmetta closed up much ground from a bad start. Canejo, nearly left, took the longest way around and finished well under a weak ride.

Winner—Ch. g, by Flambeau—Experiment (trained by P. E. Smith).

Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Golden Light trailed the first two under restraint and appeared a sure winner to the last furlong, where he pulled up out of a bad pocket, losing several lengths and only got to going fast in time to beat Matt Hogan. The latter got away badly and was repeatedly interfered with on the backstretch, but with clear sailing he finished fast and was possibly best today. Doreen forced the pace throughout and was badly messed about, is out of place in sprints and is in extra good form. Golden Cottage was going well in the stretch. Florinel II. tired under the top weight and is a non-stayer. Velma Clark finished fast.

Winner—Br. f, by St. George—Vantage (trained by C. Lind).

Went to post at 3:28. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Irene Lindsey forced the pace throughout, drew away decisively on the stretch turn and outclassed the field. Huachuca, away poorly, worked a rough journey and suffered costly interference right at the end, but finished with a rush. Meehanus, under a vigorous, skillful ride, ran the best race he has thus far shown, was always prominent and stuck to his work gamely. Jim Hale closed a big gap in the last half and is in rare form. Stuyve, away poorly and forced to take the longest way around, found the track too hard and refused to extend himself. Sly is still short. Vohicer was outclassed. Wolhurst went well throughout and is about due.

Winner—Br. c, by Sain—Ada Reese (trained by C. T. Patterson).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Corrigan was bumped at the start, but laid close to Flush of Gold and finally wore her down after a long and terrific drive, just getting up in the last stride and is in grand form. Flush of Gold made the running from the start and had the field behind her driving early and was apparently a sure winner when straightened for home, but faltered in the last few strides. Autolight, well up and dangerous on the stretch turn, fell away in the final drive. Lode Star broke slowly and sulked in an effort to take the lead and possibly has trained off.

Overweights—Flush of Gold, 1 pound; Lode Star, 1.

Corrigan, show, 1 to 6. Flush of Gold, show, 1 to 4. Autolight, show, 1 to 3. Lode Star, show, 1 to 4.

36538 SIXTH RACE—6 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. f, by Crighton—Nellie Bell (trained by W. L. Oliver).

Went to post at 4:22. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Gaviota is a slow breaker and got away badly, trailed to the half, where she moved up fast and was leading when a furlong out, appearing a handy winner, but was unexpectedly driving at the end to beat Gold Van. The latter suffered from a weak finish and made a wide stretch turn and was probably best. Gold Bell failed to stay after forcing the pace to the stretch and is probably best in soft or muddy going. Nervator went a fast six furlongs, and, at the weight, ran like a good colt, but was evidently short. Jockey Club was outclassed, but went well for five furlongs.

Overweights—Jockey Club, 1 pound.

No show betting first three.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Magnet, the magnificent St. Blaise horse brought here by D. A. Honig and sold to Prince Poniatowski for stud purposes, is now at Newcastle, New South Wales, the property of a Mr. Hogue. Mr. R. C. de B. Lopez sent the horse over, and now that The Fog, Phyz, Blissful and Clarinette have been returned good winners his loss will be severely felt. Magnet won forty races during his turf career and over $20,000, and has to his credit a series of wonderful performances, including five furlongs in 1:01, five and one-half furlongs in 1:07¼, six furlongs in 1:13, seven and one-half furlongs in 1:33½, mile in 1:39¾ and one and one-eighth miles in 1:52½. This record has been equaled by few horses in the world's history, and Mr. Hogue is a lucky man in securing such a stallion as Magnet, which combines race horse ability, good breeding and ability to transmit his excellence to his progeny. The Fog took up 118 pounds and won the Mackey Stakes at at Sacramento this fall in 1:13½, winning in a gallop.—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

Capt. S. S. Brown of Pittsburg, is spending thousands of dollars in improvements at his newly purchased breeding farm, Senorita Stud, near Lexington. He is erecting a mammoth training stable, with stalls for thirty-eight horses, which will cost from $10,000 to $12,000, the stalls being built in a circle in the center and around them is to be a covered track of about a sixteenth of a mile for exercise use in wet weather.

The stallion barns and broodmare stables and sheds are to be up to date in every particular, and when all the improvements planned are finished Senorita Stud will be one of the model breeding farms of America. Captain Brown proposes ultimately to have his horses in training wintered there instead of at Mobile, Ala. He owns his training quarters there, it is true, but he has come to the conclusion that horses wintered near Lexington and exercised over the bluegrass turf and on shedded tracks do quite as well, and then, with his string at the latter point, he can see them with less travel than if they are down south.

Oots Bros. have taken up the first foal of the famous race mare, Turtle Dove, regarded by more than one good judge as the finest yearling in Kentucky. He is by Farandole, sire of the Brooklyn Handicap winner, Banaster, and like his dam, is gray in color. He is unusually large for a yearling and resmbles no little the sire of his dam, Faraday. His owner will let him become fully developed before training him to any extent, but about midsummer next year he will be a bidder for a number of two-year-old engagements, and his conformation indicates that he will be able to make good the fond expectations of his owners. Besides Banastar, the Oots Bros., have developed many good horses, including the sensational McChesney.

A number of amendments to the rules of racing have been proposed by Mr. F. R. Hitchcock, a member of The Jockey Club. The first has to do with the placing of the name of an owner on the forfeit list. As the rule stands at present, the secretary of any association racing under the rules of The Jockey Club, must place in forfeit the name of every owner whose account is outstanding and unpaid ten days after the meeting. The proposed amendment seeks to have the time limit extended to fourteen days and there is every reason to believe that the association, as well as the owners, will approve of the amendment. If an owner be in California, say, at the close of the meeting, it is impossible to get his account to him and receive a reply within ten days, so that, under the circumstances, there is nothing to do but place his name on the forfeit list.

This amendment also provides that after the expiration of fourteen days "all arrears then remaining unpaid and all arrears not then reported shall be regarded as having been assumed by the association failing to make said report, and said arrears shall be paid by said association." As matters stand today, the association must of necessity make good all indebtedness to horsemen, so that the only effect of the amendment, as proposed, will be to debar them from the use of the forfeit list as a collection agency unless they have placed all unpaid accounts in forfeit within fourteen days of the expiration of the meeting. As the prime object of the forfeit list is to secure to owners the prompt payment of every dollar due them, it would seem that the spirit of the rule would be fulfilled when the associations assumed and paid all accounts, and that no good purpose would be served by debarring them from the aid of the forfeit list in collecting accounts which they had assumed and paid. But, having assumed and paid that account, there is not on the surface any valid reason why such club or association should not be permitted to avail itself of the machinery of the forfeit list.

The best two-year-old shown up thus far at Ingleside is Gravina, by Golden Garter—Pink Cottage, and owned by Green B. Morris. Gravina won a sensational race, after being virtually left at the post, with a fortune in money on her back. That good jockey, W. Waldo, whose record was above reproach in St. Louis last summer, was Gravina's pilot in this race, and his effort was one that aroused the enthusiasm of the onlookers to the highest pitch. Few jockeys would have won with the start, but Waldo never lost his wits for a moment and won in the last few strides by a nose.

Capt, W. H. May and his son, "Bub" May, who have developed and raced so many good horses in the last few years, both east and west, will have an extensive string out again in 1903. They have already the following nine yearlings that will race as two-year-olds in 1903:

Bay colt (half brother to Elkin), by Albert—Bullet, by Bulwark.

Bay colt (brother to Poison), by Ben Strome—Strychnine, by Strachino.

Bay colt, by Wagner—Undecided, by Deceiver.

Brown colt, by Top Gallant—Glen Hop, by Glengarry.

Bay colt, by Portland—Misfit, by Siddartha.

Black filly, by Wagner—Fabecia, by Harry O'Fallon.

Bay colt, by Pirate of Penzance—Lilly B., by Bulwark.

Chestnut filly, by Wagner—Puzzolana, by Alarm.

Bay filly, by Tristan—Gypsy Maid, by Top Gallant.

These youngsters and the older horses of this stable will be shipped to Memphis after the holidays. The best of the string will be raced east in 1903:

F. R. Hitchcock and H. K. Knapp, members of the Jockey Club, have drawn up a number of amendments to the Rules of Racing which will be officially acted upon by the stewards shortly. There are few radical changes. The work is calculated to make the rules of racing clearer and more concise. Messrs. Hitchcock and Knapp have apparently realized that the practice of "doping" horses must be handled without gloves, for they have drawn the following amendment to Rule 162:

"6. Any person who shall be proved to have affected the speed of a horse by the use of drugs or stimulants administered internally, or who shall have used appliances, electrical or mechanical, other than the ordinary whip and spur, shall be ruled off."

Another important change has reference to the starting, the amendment to Rule 104 reading:

"By special permission of the stewards of the Jockey Club, or in case of an emergency, the stewards of the meeting, or the starter, a race may be started without a gate."

This means that in case the barrier breaks and cannot be repaired without a long delay, the starter will have the power to send the field away. The other changes are of minor importance in point of public interest.

Word comes from New Orleans that Mallory looks bad and is not within twenty pounds of being the colt he was last spring. G. C. Bennett brought the colt to New Orleans because he is eligible to start in the valuable Preliminary Derby. The Memphis turfman won the Preliminary Derby last winter and he would like to gather the stake in again this year. Mallory will probably be turned out of training after the Derby is decided.

A feature of the racing at Ingleside up to date has been the starting of Jake Holtman. Jake has been in grand form. He gets his fields away in marvelous fashion, the recall flag being abolished, never to return in California. The other day six races were started in eleven minutes, an average of less than two minutes to a race, which is easily a record in this regard. It is a common thing for the horses to be at the barrier but one minute before the bell rings "they are off."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

T. Kiley, with the Arnold string, arrived safe and sound last week at Ingleside with nine horses, including Peaceful, Felix Bard, Searcher, Ethylene, Beana, Fitzbrillar, Fort Wayne, Bessie McCarthy and Mary McCafferty. Tom is by no means a stranger to the Pacific Coast. Years ago he owned George F. Smith, when that horse broke the five-furlongs record at the old Bay District track and afterward raced that fast two-year-old, Salabar. In 1894 Kiley had the horses Dick Behan and St. Brandon there also. All the horses shipped in good shape and much is expected from the performances of this strong stable.

Miss Knickerbocker, one of the fast flyers at New Orleans from St. Louis, is very sick with lung fever. There has been considerable complaint among the owners at the track regarding the prevalence of this disease. After careful investigation it was shown conclusively that the disease did not originate at the Fair Grounds, but was brought by horses shipped to the Crescent City in catch-as-catch-can style and in cars not suitable for the transportation of thoroughbreds.

C. R. Ellison's famous colt Skilful may not start at the Crescent City Jockey Club's meeting. He is at the track and is being trained carefully, but Ellison says not for the stakes offered thereabouts. His first stake will probably be in the Latonia Derby, and if he trains on as Ellison expects, he will go after the banner event of the west, the American Derby. The blonde plunger has sufficient experience in turf affairs to know that a horse campaigned arduously in the south during the winter cannot keep his form in the west in the spring, and he intends to save him for the big events up the line. Skilful's route for next season has been planned and, barring accidents, he will be heard from in the east before the cold weather drives the horsemen south again. C. R. Ellison says Harry New will not start again unless he is more liberally dealt with by the handicappers.

Henry McDaniel, which is in winning form at New Orleans, is a bay colt by Buck Massie, one of the best sons of the great Hanover. Henry McDaniel is the first of Buck Massie's get to be trained. He is a colt with a phenomenal turn of speed. He carried 112 pounds and beat a fair field in the most impressive fashion. Buck Massie, the sire of this colt, is the horse with which J. M. Murphy, of Souffle and George Rose fame, won a lot of races on the Metropolitan tracks of 1900.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performances in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:
